TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE

(A. G. 86) I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your issue of the 1st inst. and to thank you for the interesting article therein published on the subject of the proposed new edition of the New York City Charter.

The article is well written and contains many valuable suggestions. It is particularly interesting to read of the efforts of the Commission on the part of the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen to secure the adoption of the new Charter.

The Commission has the honor to inform you that the proposed Charter is now before the Board of Aldermen for their consideration and action. It is the hope of the Commission that the Board will take prompt action thereon and that the new Charter will be adopted and put into effect as soon as possible.
